Seen, Heard and Told

By The Editor

Our announcement column took a big jump this week when Crenshaw, Odom and Yeager, in order named, made bids for the office of marshal.

"Miss" Willie looks like she is by herself in the cleark's race.

Congratulations to our friends, Mr. and Mrs. Billie McCormick of Kirkman who celebrated their 67th wedding anniversary this week. Both are hale and hearty. Uncle Billie celebrated the event by renewing to the GCW.

There is some deep politics going on in and about Grenada.

Death ended the long, useful and honorable career this week of Mr. A. D. Caulfield, superintendant of the Mississippi Division of the I. C. R. R., a man who came from the bottom of the railroad ladder. He was not only an efficient railroad executive but was also a high class christian gentleman.

We are mighty proud of our neighbor, Fred Griffin, who got his picture in the Commercial Appeal along with the other big shots at the Dennis Murphree inauguration Tuesday.

Congratulations to Mr. Tom on a fine issue of his morning paper Monday, an issue dedicated to his boyhood friend, Governor Paul Johnson. From the number of ads in this issue, one would judge that Mr. Tom lost mighty little, if any, money on the edition. He shook 'em down, as the saying is.

Jim Elliott and the WPA are making a real highway of the Holcomb-Carrollton road, and it is beleived the S. H. D. will take it over later.

Without my knowing it until now, Cousin Groce Carver got a job as the head timekeeper on the WPA roads in Beat 5 last November, and still has it. Hold on, Cousin Groce.

That's just a lie they are telling on Little T. Horn about how he got that bandage on his head. Everybody, of course, knows he deserves what they say he got, but it was not that way a-tall.

Keene Huffington has been trying to get me to have a pre-stork column. I still love to live and do well.

Each new subscriber gets a copy of the Snuff Dippers' special issue as long as they last. If I did not send Jerry Talbert one, he can write in and get one.

Sister J. M. Windham has been added to the probation list.

Understand Chancellor L. A. Smith taught several Calhoun City lawyers a lesson in promptness this week when he fined each of them ten dollars for being late at his court. It seems that the judge came from Holly Springs, a distance of 100 miles, and got there on time, while some of those slothful Calhounites came across the street, as it were, and were tardy. Put it to them, Judge

Judge Whitaker is understood to have said that he was going to follow the same custom in his court from now on.

I don't know wheather I am honest or not, but am running for alderman just the same.

Roy "Puss" Mitchell and his crowd have been in Grenada eating off Jake Kettle and family for a few days. 'Puss', the intrepid and courageous wagoner of Hq. Co. 140th USA, now works in Memphis for the express company, and apparentely is doing well. Certainly well enough to pay out a dollar for a six months treatment.

I am running for alderman, city at large, so that all the people of Grenada can get a shot at me for any devilment I have done on the board or otherwise.

Farmer W. S. P. Doty is marked up another year by virtue of a payment of 3 glass jugs filled with molasses.

John Pressgrove has a mighty pretty new secretary working in the clerk's office.

Well, a good many of the boys will be able to earn (?) three dollars a day next week, looking wise, chewing tobacco or dipping snuff, and dealing out impartial justice from the jury boxes.

Bet nobody ever saw a Federal Judge dipping snuff before last Saturday.

Hurrah for Paul B. Johnson, our new governor.

Hayward and Crenshaw Captured Trio of Robbers In Beat Three

When the sheriff's force arrested Paul Lafon and wife and another man in a deserted house near the Grenada-Yalobusha line in Beat Three, they found some of the people who were responsible for a series of robberies in and near Graysport and Grenada. Getting into communication with the FBI department in New Orleans, the Sheriff was requested to hold these people and their car—a '36 Chevrolet—which is believed to have been stolen and driven over state lines.

Right after Christmas about 600 lbs. of meat was stolen from George Brown at Graysport. Jim Blount near the same location lost 52 quarts of cylinder oil. Mr. Jesse Hardy reported the loss of 13 turkeys. The arrested parties are reported to have admitted stealing these articles, and selling the meat in Arkansas and the turkeys and oil in Chickasaw county. In the car were papers which indicated that the people had been about over the Nation like a Cook's tourist—Wyoming, Colorado, West Virginia and intermediate points being represented by sundry written evidences.

Tipped off that suspicious parties were occupying a deserted house near Preacher Hankin's home in Beat 3 Sheriff Taylor Hayward, Deputy Clayton Carpenter, City Marshal Snip Crenshaw, George Brown and Jim Blount, arrested the man, his wife and the third—who was afterwards delivered to Chickasaw officals in connection with a jail break and a gun battle with the Okolona marshal—just as they were leaving, apparently for another night's adventure with other folk's things.

According to the officers' statement, Mr. and Mrs. Lafon, now boarding with Matt Cooley in Hotel de Jail, naively admitted that they never bought gasoline, but depended upon the siphon principle of extracting other folk's gas from other folk's cars; and, as mementos of these sundry siphonings of stolen stuff, always took away the gas tank caps, of which they had a large number. Of the meat that they allegedly allowed Brown unwillingly to allocate to the alleviation of their appetite, only one ham remained when the officers searched the cabin.

It is beleived that the three who were arrested were associated with two others who escaped.

Willard Odom A Candidate For City Marshal

Mr. Odom who announced his candidacy for City Marshal issued the following card:

To the Voters:

Willard Odom announces for City Marshal today.

As he was born and reared in Grenada County, he hardly feels it necessary to elaborate on his past life. He has served six years as Night Chief of Police and feels that since his record speaks for itself, he is now due a promotion.

As the time is short before election and he will be working nights, he might fail to see each voter. If so, he is taking this means of asking you to give him every consideration.

Mrs. W. Y. West Announces For Re-election

The Grenada County Weekly has been authorized to announce that Mrs. W. Y. West is a candidate for re-election to the important office of City Recorder, the intricate details of which she is very familiar with.

"Miss" Willye, as everyone knows her, is a native of Grenada, where she received her education. A daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Young, she and her people are too well and favorably known here for us to seek to add anything.

"Miss" Willye did say that she sincerely appreciates the honors that the people have already bestowed upon her and that she feels that, with the training and experience she now possesses, she can make a better officer in the future.

ROBERTS RECEIVES CAR LOAD

Roberts Hardware Company recently received a solid car load of the famous John Deere farming equipment, which has been unloaded and is now being displayed and demonstrated.

Me and Paul.

Proposed Amendments to Charter Defeated

The two proposed amendments to the city charter: first, to shorten the term of elective officers from four to two years; and second, to make the city marshal and the city recorder appointive by the board rather than elective by the people, were defeated at the general election Saturday, because a majority of those qualified to vote did not vote "for" these proposed changes, although a majority "of those voting" did vote for the changes.

On the first proposal, 342 voted for, 130 against; on the second 237 voted for, 200 against.

Inasmuch as there are 801 persons qualified to vote in city elections, it would have been necessary for at least 401 voters to vote for each proposed change. Therefore the first proposal lost by 68 votes, and the second proposal lost by 144 votes.

The practical effect of these provisions in the general election law is that the person who failed to vote automatically voted against the proposals.

These questions, particularly the second one, have been perennial sources of discussion and speculation in this city. Previous efforts to bring the question to a vote of the people have been killed by petition.

As a direct result of this election, candidates for the office of city marshal and candidates for the office of city recorder have become active, for Wednesday of this week, which is 30 days ahead of election day of February 17, was the deadline for announcements for city officers.

Mardi Gras Queen Will Be Selected Friday Night

The 8th annual Mardi Gras Ball, an event that has grown to be the largest social event in Grenada and one of the largest in North Mississippi, an event which is sponsored by the ladies of the Episcopal Auxiliary, will be held February 2, according to Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, president.

This colorful affair, which includes a tea at which the Junior King and Junior Queen are crowned and a magnificent pageant at which the King and Queen of Mardi Gras are crowned, will be concluded with the Mardi Gras Ball at the high school gymnasium where the famous Memphis Blues orchestra will furnish the music.

Tomorrow (Friday) night at the Grenada Theatre, the Queen will be selected from thirty-eight young ladies, each of whom represents some business firm in Grenada. Each ticket entitles the holder to one vote in this contest.

EXTENSION DEPT. SENDING SPECIALISTS HERE

Miss Ouida Midkiff, clothing specialist, from State College will give a demonstration to the clothing leaders on finishes in the Agricultural Building January 25 at 10:00 a.m. Every leader should bring needles, scissors, thread, and scraps of cloth. Other women may attend this meeting, but all clubs should try to send the women who will be leader for the year.

Miss Kate Lee, Program Specialist, from State College, will meet with the Home Demonstration Council January 26, at 1:30 p.m. in the demonstration kitchen. Miss Lee will plan the community programs with club officers. Every secretary should bring her book and have questions ready that she would like to ask.

Club meetings for the fourth week in this month will be as follows: Tie Plant has been changed from January 23 to Jan. 29. Place of meeting will be announced later.

Graysport will meet with Mrs. J. W. Willis at 2:00 p.m. January 24.

Taylors Chapel club is changed from January 25 to Jan. 22 with Mrs. Sanford at 2:00 p.m.

I am glad that slot machines have been outlawed, for I can now keep a nickle in my pocket awhile.

It looks like they never are going to fix up my old place at Oxberry.

Several from near the edge of the free state got slightly tipsy in Grenada Saturday, but did not have to spend all night in the Hotel de Jail.

Who's At The Hospital

BY AINT THEY SWEET

The following patients have been dismissed from the hospital: Miss Laura Watkins of Grenada; Mrs. A. L. Carpenter of Vaiden; Miss Opal Lidell of Leflore; Mrs. Frank Godwin of Water Valley; Mrs. R. C. Wiseman of Coffeeville; Floyd Ashmore of Grenada; Mrs. H. Gordan of Coffeeville; Miss Mildred Rasberry of Tillatobia and Ike Rasberry of Tillatobia.

The following patients are now in the hospital: W. J. Ligon of Pittsboro; W. O. Brown of Coffeeville; Mrs. O. D. Cooper of Lodi; Mrs. Lee Clanton of Holcomb; Betty Sherman Holmes of West; Jesse Lloyd Turner of Holcomb; Mrs. Frank Anderson of Grenada; Bryan Currington of Big Creek; Mrs. H. J. Doler and infant son of Calhoun City; Miss Erline Kimberline of Grenada; B. W. Gordan of Oakland; E. K. Hale of Grenada; G. W. Staple of Grnada; Mrs. J. W. Jordan of Elliott; Vester Arinder of Vaiden; L. B. Hoop of Cascilla; W. I. Bell of Coffeeville; M. S. Hill of Holcomb; W. E. Buchanan of Carrollton and Mrs. L. J. Trusty of Coffeeville.

Mrs. Myrtle Boyd Died Tuesday, Buried Today

Mrs. Myrtle Weyneth Boyd died in her home in Grenada Tuesday, January 16, 1940.

She was born in Grenada on January 13, 1876, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Weyneth, long time residents of this city.

In the late nineties, she and Mr. J. W. (Bill) Berry were married. After the death of Mr. Berry a few years later, she and Mr. A. B. Boyd were married. He died about a quarter of a century ago. She was a life-long member of the Methodist Church.

She was a musician of note, having been graduated from the Cincinatti Conservatory of Music when she was a young lady. She taught music in the public schools, and later had private classes.

For the past several years, "Miss Mert", as she was affectionately called by her friends, has been in bad health, but this did not prevent her taking active personal and loving interest in her work as secretary of the Cemetery Association, even tho oftentimes her work was done from her sick bed.

And so it was to this cemetery that she loved so well that her body was carried Thursday morning, after services at the Methodist Church, and there buried. Rev. T. B. Thrower, pastor of the Methodist Church, officiated.

Pall bearers were: W. E. Jackson, Roy Doak, Jim Cuff, Herman Heath, Ralph Semmes and Whyte Whitaker.

One daughter, Mrs. J. Waring Taylor, and one brother, E. J. Weyneth, survive. To them we extend our sympathy

WORK BEGUN ON COURT HOUSE IMPROVEMENT PROJECT

With an experienced mechanic, Geo. Lambert, in charge, the work on the court house improvement project began Monday morning. The first work done was that of excavating a place at the northwest corner of the present court house where the heating plant will be located. The dirt obtained from this excavation is being spread in the front yard of the property, bringing the yard to proper level.

As soon as blue prints are available, the GCW hopes to carry an article in which it will seek to give the reader a good idea of the contemplated improvements under this project. At this time, plans are not available.

Ed Brunson is going to raise a big turnip patch this spring they say. It may be that Ed will get some of that big belly off himself.

20 CANDIDATES QUALIFY FOR CITY PRIMARIES IN FEBRURAY

Circuit Court to Convene Here on Monday

Circuit Court is scheduled to convene next Monday January 22.

With the exception of Circuit Judge John F. Allen, almost the entire group of court officers will be "new". A new district attorney, J. P. Coleman of Ackerman, a new county attorney, Marshall Perry, a new sheriff, T. T. Hayward, and a new circuit clerk, C. J. Worsham, as well as a new deputy circuit clerk, Miss Aline Bridgers, will greet the judge and jurors, as well as those brought to the bar of justice.

While it is early to be positive, for no one can say what the grand jury may "dig up", it is entirely probable that the session will be a light one, as few cases of general interest are in prospect.

The following have been or are being summoned for jury service:

E. E. Turnipseed, E. B. Parker, Millard Whittimore, G. W. Organ, D. L. Little, Lewis Williams, C. H. Ingram, Herbert Tribble, Lamar Staten, Robt. West, Will Marters, W. D. Merritt, R. P. James, W. L. Vance.

Monroe Perry, Alton Martin, A. B. Tankersley, W. E. Smith, D. N. Moore, J. L. Neal, W. A. Hayward, Chas Brunson, J. L. Hamilton, W. P. Blakeley, Clayton Melton, Lacy Thomas, J. A. Smith, J. N. Hodges, J. E. Bowen, W. J. Clark, A. B. Carlisle.

E. J. Beatty, J. M. McCormick, Roy Martin, J. T. Spears, Leland Whitten, T. B. Perry, G. S. Kent, J. E. Spruill, M. V. McCormick, F. B. Coats Jr., J. L. Tingle, E. C. Barnette, Guy T. D. Keeton, B. P. Irby, J. T. Williams, Abey Todd, H. S. Powell.

P. M. Gray, Alex Yopp, Lee Rouse, Guy Hendricks, Woodrow Tribble, N. Mitchell, Ted Whitten, C. H. Heaton, D. D. Smith, J. H. Cohea and Thomas Gray.

J. D. Crenshaw Again Seeks Re-election As Marshal

J. D. "Snip" Crenshaw authorizes us to announce that he is a candidate for reelection as Marshal of the City of Grenada, a post that he has held continuously for 3 terms, subject to the primary elections on February 17th and 24th.

Seeking to introduce Mr. Crenshaw to the people of Grenada is somewhat as futile and foolish as carrying coals to Newcastle, seeking to sell refrigerators to Esquimau, or red flannel drawers to the Hottentots—for the simple and sufficient reason that everybody, old, young, male, female, white and black, knows Mr. Crenshaw already, and nothing that we could publish here would be news to them.

Therefore we are going to end this article here and use the space that we might devote to further introduction of this well-known man to society news and ads.

ZONE MEETING AT HOLCOMB

The first quarter's zone meeting will be held at the Holcomb Methodist church January 23 at 1:45 P. M.. This meeting is to be a retreat. Everybody is invited, expected and urged to attend.

All Spiritual Life Chairmen, all the members of groups, all officers and members of the missionary societies are most certainly expected to attend this meeting.

This Zone is composed to the following auxiliaries: Charleston, Oakland, Oak Grove, Grenada, Tie Plant and Hoclomb.

May every members of each of these auxiliaries put forth every effort to attend and to help in making this a most helpful and worthwhile meeting.

MRS. A. W. BAILEY.
Zone Chairman.

YOLLES' GIVES AWAY OVERALLS

Yollos' Department Store gave away three pair of Oshkosh B'Gosh overalls Saturday night to the three estimators who estimated the bag of sand the nearest correct. The bag of sand weighed 60 pounds and 8 ounces. Mr. J. E. White and Buddy Patterson guessed the weight to the ounce; Whyte Whitaker, Jr. won the third pair with a guess of 60 pounds and 6 ounces.

Our Memphis list is growing by leaps and bounds. Mrs. Dovie Butler is the latest new subscriber there.

Nineteen have announced publicly that they wish to serve the city in some capacity. There is one dark horse—that is one who has qualified, but has not made public his intentions. This aspirant is anticipating running for city marshal.

The following gentlemen have announced for mayor: E. C. Neelly for re-election, R.W. Sharp, Wm. Ferguson L. C. Proby, and Charles C. "Choppy" Andrews.

For city marshal: Snip Crenshaw for re-election, Willard Odom, Talbert Yeager, Dave Degan, and a dark horse.

For city recorder, only one, Miss Willye Y. West, for re-election.

Alderman, city at large: W. W. Whitaker for re-election, C. A. "Claud" Perry, and L. D. Boone. Two will represent the city on the board.

Alderman, West Ward: A trio went to that spot. Two of them will serve the city, John Bradley for re-election, L. D. Moss for re-election, and Harry Birkley.

Alderman, East Ward: J. E. McEachin for re-election, C. S. Burt and H. C. Wilson. East Ward will be represented by two of these gentlemen for the next four years.

The first primary election in the city will be held at the mayor's office on Saturday, February 17th.

Talbert Yeager Seeks Election To Office of City Marshal

This newspaper was authorized Tuesday afternoon to make official announcement that Talbert Yeager is a candidate for City Marshal.

He has had years of experience as a police officer, having served right here in Grenada on the night force. He was born here in Grenada and still owns and lives in the home that he inherited from his parents. The Yeagers have been citizens of Grenada County perhaps longer than the county has existed, coming from the eastern part of Beat Three.

Fearlessness in the face of danger is one of the most valuable traits of a peace officer. No one would deny that Mr. Yeager possesses plenty of courage.

In the month that remains before election, Mr. Yeager hopes to contact all of the citizens, if possible, but, due to the fact that his duties require much of the time, he may miss some of them.

To the tender mercies of the people of Grenada, we commit Talbert Yeager, candidate for city marshal.

DR. ABERNETHY TO CLARKSDALE

Dr. L. D. Abernethy, who has been in Grenada for the past year, left for Clarksdale to begin a month's preparation for the new position offered to him by the State Board of Health.

At the end of the month, he will receive his permenant assignment.

Dr. Abernethy is a splendid young man, and carries with him the best wishes of many Grenada friends.

Personally, I'll be glad when the Mardi Gras Ball is over, for at that time I hope to see the old lady again. Don't know which is worse, Christmas or Mardi Gras.

Blowing Our Own Horn

Grenada, with an honorable past, faces a brilliant and prosperous future.

Grenada has enjoyed a steady, healthy growth ever since the Civil War. The past decade, as will be disclosed by the 1940 Census, will show the greatest growth for a similar period in its history.

Grenada's present growth is not based upon the exploitation of fresh soil, underground riches, or virgin timber. It passed through that period, which all new towns pass through, many years ago. Life has become stabilized in the hinterlands about Grenada. Grenada's present growth is not based on the "boom" physcology, but upon the safe and firm ground of being the distributing point for goods and services in a territory much greater than Grenada County. As a matter of fact, if Grenada were dependent entirely upon Grenada County, it would be little larger than Coffeeville.

Look at the list of patients in our weekly feature, "Who's At The Hospital". Certainly not over one-half of the patients come from this county. Therefore, the hospital would be just half the size were it to minister exclusively to Grenada County folks.

Get Vernon Williams at the Compress to let you see the origin of cotton stored in the compress. If it were just the size to accomodate Grenada County bales, the compress would be smaller than it was forty years ago, instead of being about eight times as large.

Were Grenada Grocery Company to supply only the merchants of Grenada County, this business could be housed in one-fifth its present space, and could be staffed by one-fifth the present personnel, and could deliver with one-fifth the number of trucks.

The foregoing are but a few of the many examples that we might cite to show that Grenada, the Crossroads of North Mississippi, is not dependent entirely upon the very small county of Grenada for its living.

Grenada has a greater percent of its streets paved than any town that we know about. Its schools are among the best in this state. A recent issue of bonds was sold on a 3.04 percent basis, indicating better than any other index, its financial stability. Its partnership with the Grenada Industries, the silk hosiery factory, has resulted in a weekly payroll of about $5,000.00 and the employment of several hundred of our young men and young women at substantial salaries. Its municipal water system is being extended as needs develop. Grenada is located above any conceivable overflow. Roads leading into Grenada have been built on a grade safely above ANY overflow ever recorded, and it is extremely unlikely that Grenada will EVER be cut off by water from the outside.

Within the past three years there has been more improvement in business places of this city than in any ten years prior, and this indicates that the merchants of Grenada have become at long last awakened to the necessity of preparing for the inevitable growth and development of this city, and to the ever-widening territory from which trade may be expected.

Equidistant from Memphis on the north and Jackson on the south, equidistant from the Mississippi River on the west and the Alabama line on the east, with paved roads completed or under construction to all cardinal points of the compass, Grenada is indeed at the crossroads of North Mississippi, and if Grenada follows its destiny that geography clearly indicates, it will be to North Mississippi what Hattiesburg is to South Mississippi and what Jackson is to Central Mississippi.

Durng this period of progress Grenada has not been asleep. Hundreds of miles of rural roads have been graveled during the WPA era. Volumes could be written about its financial stability, but the statement that it recently sold bonds on a 2¼ percent basis tells that tale of financial stability in just about a dozen words.

Personal Explanation

The readers of this paper, being accustomed to looking for bugs under chips, and accustomed to editors and others inspired by selfish motives in advocating measures and laws will, we know, be surprised when we assure them that we are inspired by altruistic and unselfish motives in urging the adoption of Governor Johnson's entire program—and, to prove that statement, recite our own circumstances and conditions with respect to the points in the program.

We are struggling along trying to get a newspaper established in a highly competitive field, and therefore are in favor of strict economy.

No blood kin of ours is a school teacher and therefore our desire to help Governor Johnson to provide social security to teachers is not a selfish desire.

We have a house and lot in town, subject to limited homestead exemption, and 360 acres of country land not subject to exemption, yet we favor extension of this exemption.

We are glad to report that none of our folks need tubercular treatment, yet we favor care of tubercular patients by the state.

We have reached that stage in life when, while biologically possible, it is highly improbable that we will need maternity wards in our immediate family, and the children yet unmarried, and therefore their need for such facilities is highly speculative.

We have no car to buy $3.00 tags for, yet we are 100 percent for these cheap tags.

We are fifty years old, and cannot receive the $30 promised those 65 years of age, nor can the old lady, who is younger than we are.

Every veteran's hospital in the nation is open to us, and therefore we do not personally need state free hospitals.

We are for Governor Johnson's program not from a selfish reason, but for the reason we are a Democrat and wish the will of the people, as expressed by their approval of Governor Johnson's program, to prevail.

Our New Governor

Hon. Paul B. Johnson became Mississippi's 46th chief executive Tuesday of this week.

He was voted into office by the greatest majority ever given a candidate for governor.

The responsibilities of this office are great, but we believe that Governor Johnson is capable of meeting these responsibilities, as he is a man of great intelligence and great ability.

His inaugural address was, as expected, a prayer to the legislature to enact into the law the many points in his program for the average man. It was somewhat remindful of his campaign speeches, and we could not expect less. He left nothing unsaid to impress upon his hearers his determination to enact his promises into realities.

Perhaps it would be a bit egotistic for us to say that our support of Mike Conner, Governor Johnson's chief opponent, was well-known in the entire state. We can, however, truthfully say that our preference was pretty well known here in Grenada. Be that as it may, "Me and Mike" lost, and Paul B. Johnson is just as much our governor as he is Hurd Horton's governor, and our weak voice is hereby dedicated to Judge Johnson's cause, and our weak voice shall always be raised in a plea, if not a demand, that all of Governor Johnson's program be enacted into law.

While, during the campaign, we felt that the carrying out of his program would bankrupt the state, and never failed to publish those dire prophesies, we were awakened on the 30th day of August to the fact that the Democrats of Mississippi had said very emphatically that they wanted what Mr. Johnson advocated, and we are too good a Democrat to seek to thrwart them. On that day, when the people's decision became known, we got into the boat with them. We too want free school books, thirty dollars a month for the old folks, free maternity wards, free hospitals, $3.00 car tags, and all of the other good things that the average man yearns for. Nor would we balk at another mudsill in the Johnson program—economy in government, for we are for that too.

If the represenfatives are what their names indicate representatives of the people—they can not do less than enact the laws that Governor Johnson advocated from the platform. If they do otherwise, they will NOT represent the people who sent Mr. Johnson to the governor's chair, thus endorsing his program, by an overwhelming majority.

While Governor Johnson was not much more specific in his inaugural address about the source of the money to finance his programs than he was during the campaign, we have faith that he will disclose means of obtaining it as the session progresses. It was but natural for a man who is more interested in people than in money to devote his first official address to the welfare of the people, and not to money, always secondary to him.

Governor Johnson and the writer are personal friends. Even during the bitter campaign he always came by to see us, and, at the beginning of his four-year term, we wish him and his administration much success, and we assure him that the barbs we shot in his direction before the election will now be shot in the direction of those who oppose his humanitarian program for the average man.

Our Retiring Governor

As Hugh White leaves the governor's office and becomes a plain citizen again, we wish to say that we are very candid in saying that this newspaper in the past was unnecessarily "hard" on Hugh. Were we to re-travel the old roads, many things then published would not be published.

Hugh's greatest fault, in our opinion, was that he was sometimes misguided by his friends, and was too quick to take a stand which he afterwards changed. Perhaps he was too tender-hearted.

It would be unfair to judge a man's entire administration by a few mistakes, just as it would be unfair for your life or my life to be judged by a few indiscretions. Therefore, it would be unfair to judge the White administration by a few things which we thought wrong.

While we may have been unfair in some of our criticisms, his friends were unfair in some of their praises—as when Hugh was praised highly for reducing the state advalorum levy fifty percent, that is from 8 to 6 mills, when as a matter of fact Hugh's administration had raised it 100 percent, that is from 4 to 8 mills; as when they now praise him for leaving the state with a smaller BONDED debt, and overlooking the fact that the immense number of highway notes (a note being just as firm an obligation as a bond) were not included in that compilation.

All in all, we are bound to say that Hugh White headed a "good" administration, one free from the breath of scandal, graft, or bribery. He, when called upon to appoint men to positions of trust and responsibility, appointed good men, such as Hon. A. L. Smith of Holly Springs, whom he appointed as Chancellor of this district. While the debt of the state is much larger now than when he took office (we will not agree that the debt is less just because the BONDED debt is less), we have hundreds of miles of splendid paved roads to show for it. For our good money we have received good roads and at fair costs. He fathered the Industrial Act which, certainly, we folks here in Grenada cannot condemn. While we had a lot to say in advance of the appointment of the members of the highway patrol to say about politics being the dominent force in the appointments, we are bound to say that fine young men were named to fill these posts, and that this patrol has been worthwhile.

We think Hugh did right in refraining from giving the new legislature, over which he had no control, a lot of free advice.

We think Hugh showed the proper spirit in rendering every assistance to the new governor, and the new governor's household, in the past two or three weeks while one was moving out and the other moving in. Of course this is what he should have done, but something that other retiring officials have not always done. No one would expect Hugh and his gracious wife to leave the mansion in shambles, for they are not that kind of people.

As he retires to private life, he does so with the good wishes of thousands of Mississippians, including the editor of the GCW who, in the past, has given him plenty of hell.

General Elections Are Confusing

People who can figure 6 percent interest on $156.78 for 6 months and 8 days without resort to a pencil and paper, get confused about election results.

In a matter so simple as the election last Saturday, many people became confused. So great a news-gathering agency as the Memphis Commercial Appeal interpreted the result absolutely wrong by saying that the amendments had been approved, when, as a matter of fact, they had not been approved.

The law relating to this subject, "How Charter of a Municipality Now Existing May Be Changed", contained in Section 2625 of the Code of 1930 states that such proposed changes must be "ratified by a majority of the electors of the municipality". It did not recite that they must be ratified by a majority of the electors who felt like going to the polls, or that they must be ratified by a majority of those who voted either way, but "a majority of the electors". This means, of course, that the elector who stayed at home that day automatically voted AGAINST the change. It means that a majority of the votes must POSITIVELY want a change, and must go to the pools and express that desire for a change before the change can be made.

The Charter of the City of Grenada is to the people of Grenada what the State Constitution is to the people of Mississippi and the Federal Constitution is to the people of the United States. It is Grenada's fundamental law. It is hard to alter, as is any basic law or constitution and it should be hard to change, and should not be changed until a majority of the people actually want to change it, and express their desire positively to do so.

New Brooms

Sheriff Dob Westover has laid down the law to whiskey sellers of Wayne County, and states that he is not going to tolerate conditions as they are, and he intends to bring them all, high, if any bootlegger can be so classified, as well as the lowest in the racket. He will have the backing of the best people of this county.

—Wayne County News

Brother Westover has layed out a hard job for himself.

If Brother Westover does not already know, he is going to find out that he cannot get the "best people" of the community to testify, for, if they are not p[illegible] criminl, they cannot testify anything worthwh[illegible]

If Brother Westover has the usual luck, he will find that he cannot get the "best people" to sit [illegible] the juries, for the "best people" will beg off, and Br[illegible]r Westover will excuse them.

If Brother Westover and the other sensible people of Wayne County would instruct their representatives to vote for some sensible control law, they would be getting somewhere. They will not get anywhere depending on the "best people", for, as stated, the "best people" either buy and drink licker or the "best people" are so good that they know nothing but heresay about licker canditions.

By the time Brother Westover arrests a dozen or so saloonkeepers and sees them freed by Wayne County juries, his enthusiasm will become somewhat atrophied and he will say, as all the "old brooms" say, "Oh hell, what can I do?"

Winter's Sane Proposal

Senator Winter, of Grenada, has introduced a resolution providing that no appropriations be made at this session until it is first ascertained where the money is coming from.

That's plain common sense. The Winter resolution should be made promptly in both houses.

But, whether adopted or not, it is certain to be the policy of the Senate where the finance committee is being directed by Chairman John Kyle who believes in that sort of policy.

Incidentally, there is not an abler man in either branch of our lawmaking bady than Senator W. A. Winter. He is a calm, cool, level-headed legislator who does not believe in spending sprees just because some members made absurd promises while running for office.

The people of Mississippi are destined to hear all sorts of wild and visionary schemes proposed at this session, but that does not mean they will be adopted. There must be enough men of common sense in the two houses to hold the old ship of state on an even keel.

That familiar question, "Where is the money coming from?" was dodged on the stump many times last year. It cannot be dodged in the halls of legislation. —Jackson Daily News

The people of Grenada County will appreciate these deserved words of praise of its fine citizen and public servant. Senator Winter, from Editor Sullens, who sometimes exhibits a good deal of sense.

Mitchell is still there, and is likely to be there for four more years at least.

Well, I guess I will just have to buy some drawers if this cold weather continues.

Judge Whitaker held Fedtral Court in the circuit clerk's office Saturday, and is scheduled to have a bigger court upstairs in the court house next Saturday, probably an all-day session.

Preachier J. B. Ray of Cascilla, free state, was a pleasant caller recently.

Hope those parity checks hurry up and come into this county.

Mayor Neelly had a grand slot machine court last week. Slot machines must go, is the edict.

Some of them came mighty near to having another rucus Saturday night, they say.

EPISCOPAL AUXILIARY

All Saints Auxiliary met in the home of Mrs. Otis Benoit Monday. The president, Mrs. Whitaker, opened the meeting with a short devotional. Fourteen members were present. Business session followed, in which detail plans for the coming Mardi Gras Ball were discussed. Mrs. Liles closed the meeting with benediction.

Recent guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Whitaker were relatives from Memphis who came for the 70th birthday celebration of their mother, Mrs. S. L. Calhoon. They were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Calhoun, and Miss Joseph, and Mrs. A. C. Campbell. Mrs. Eli Whitaker is a daughter of Mrs. S. L. Calhoun.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith and children visited their parents in Oxford on Sunday last. Mrs. Grover Long accompanied them to Oxford and spent the day with her neice, Mrs. J. A. George, and the Rev. George.

MRS. PERRY, HOSTESS

On Saturday afternoon of the past week, Mrs. J. B. Perry Jr. entertained delightfully when the members of the Saturday Bridge Club met in her home for games.

The artisticall arranged home formed a charming background for the fashionably attired matrons present. Mrs. George Garner played for Mrs. Boone who was prevented from attending.

In the late afternoon, the hostess served delicious refreshments.

WMS MET

The WMS of the Methodist Church met Monday afternoon in the men's bible class room. Mrs. R. H. Herring program leader, spoke on our great opportunity for service and read several verses of scripture as a foundation of her message. Mrs. Joe Thomas gave the Meditation talk on "Thy Thoughts Shall Be Established". The Missionary topic, "God In One Woman's Life", was very interestingly discussed by Mrs. Fred White and Mrs. J. D. Edwards.

The meeting was closed with a prayer by the leader.

My Column

Whyte Whitaker, Jr.

The slot machine operators were getting mighty fat off the suckers, but we have a new deal in these parts now, outlawing the nickle catchers. Get out some pants that are smaller in the waist boys, grit your teeth and bear it.

The Episcopal Auxiliary will present the candidates for Mardi Gras Queen Friday night. Come out and see your favorite all dolled up. You will also see the favorite of millions, Nelson Eddy, co-starred with Ilona Massey in "Balalaika". Some say that it should be three words, Bala la Ika, but anyway, it has something to do with a Russian guitar.

Our senator, W. A. Winter, has written a good bill, with the pay as you go idea in mind, but if it was passed the people couldn't have the things Paul Johnson promised, so I guess we are against it, for we want the people to have everything Paul promised them.

Theo Bilbo and Pat Harrison have made up. Why can't Hitler and Chamberlain settle their troubles?

Get ready for the dance of the year in Grenada. It will be staged February 2nd at the Grenada High School gumnasium. "The Memphis Blues" orchestra will furnish the music.

A certain young fellow of this town had quite a merry time one night several weeks ago. His daddy didn't have anything to say to him that night, but the next morning he said, "I'm not going to ask you whether or not you were drinking last night, for I'm in no mood to listen to a damn lie."

It is surprising that the so-called hardened criminals are transformed into such screaming wretches at the moment of death.

Three Grenada hawks were seen sipping beer in the show Saturday night. They seemed to be having quite a picnic.

Ellett Lawrence and Billy Snider, both former Grenadians, have been chosen to lead the affairs of the C. of C., Ellett having cast his lot with Greenwood, Billy with Clarksdale, Congratulations to the bretheren and to the towns.

The proposed amendments to the City Charter died aborning. There was good argument both pro and con on the subject.

It looks like every dog we own some one takes a liking to, and we have to get us another one. To avoid such things we have named the last one "Penny". Who wants a cent? You take a bath to get rid of it, and unless you are a polecat, you will not steel our dog.

Come to the show Friday night and vote for one of the girls——there are so many good lookers you can hardly make a mistake. Please note the "hardly".

Quite a few of the National Guard boys dropped by the drug store when they arrived home Tuesday night to get some B C Tablets, etc. Wonder what Uncle Sam gave them to drink while in camp?

I think everybody concerned is glad that the Episcopal Auxiliary changed the way of selecting the Queen of Mardi Gras. They had originally planned to charge ten cents per vote, and one could vote as many times as one had dimes. Voting that way would not have shown the popularity of the girl, but just how much money she had behind her. They have come out with a more feasible plan, being let everyone who goes to the picture show have one vote.

EDITORIAL

Exams are past—Wow! What a relief! Well, they weren't so bad after all—it was the crammng that was so gruesome. Can you imagine how our poor young brains, unaccustomed to use as they were, felt when suddenly flooded with such huge quantities of educative matter and in such collosal lumps? Undoubtedly they felt as the poor mis-used camel must have felt when those inhuman creatures kept piling straw on his back to see if one straw would break it.

We enter the second semester—who knows what dread horrors await us in the depths of this unfathomable cavern? Perhaps some of us may sink into a quicksand of unsolvable algebra or physics problems, or drown in a bottomless pit of grammatical constructions. Perhaps some of us may cross a veritable desert of dry government or history, while some of us may even be frozen atop an Alpine peak in the heights of literature. Who can tell but what still others of us may become entangled in a vast spiderweb of Latin or French.

At any rate, we have an old and faithful flashlight along to guide our steps, the Light of Knowledge, and enough energy has been exerted to save us much exertion, i. e.: the Works of Shakespeare!

DOTS AND DASHES ON DIZZY DUDS

Exams—but I wont speak of the overcast future yet. I'll start right in on the gay garments.

Saw Frances Guidry in a beautiful new angora jacket—by the way, Xmas sort of dressed everybody up in jackets and costume jewelry, didn't it?

The Home Ec girls really did themselves proud when they made those new dresse. (If the Home Ec brethren try to do the same, these may be the fashion headlines: "Fred Joiner's purple flowered blouse," "Juchheim's new orange shirt with green braid, etc.".)

Marguerite Stanley needs a vote of thanks for looking so much the typical winter girl in her white boots and ear muffs.

Those football sweaters and letters look pretty nice, don't they. Congratulations to the boys and their sponsor.

And now, just before I sign off, here's a fashion flash: The well-dressed exam taker will be dressed in a costume of sack-cloth and ashes. Accessories will be fountain pen, ink, frowning forehead, and ink-spotted fingers.

Bye, until next week,
DIZZY.

EXAM WEEK, IF YOU HAVEN'T STUDIED LAST SEMESTER—

Exam week connotates much unpleasantness when we haven't studied: Ink-smudged hands, dark-circle eyes midnight oil burning, indigestion from cramming indigestible facts, students gathering in little groups in the hallways comparing answers, whispering their fears, gathering last-minute data, students going around mumbling to themselves in a preoccupied manner, girls in jodpurs, hair uncombed and nobody notices.

Exam week: Red eyes; sleepless nights; nerves on edge; tired teachers; "resolute resolves" made to study next semester—what a Herculean task it is to learn in a week what we should have learned all last semester. But then there are all the optimistic ones who attempt to do the impossible.

MY IDEA OF A GOOD TIME

Francis Hill—Eating, sleeping and drinking (that just about covers the life process, eh?).

CHAPEL PROGRAM

In the first assembly held in the auditorium in several weeks, a very interesting program was presented. At the beginning of the program, Coach Hathorn presented athletic award sweaters to Wormack Smith, Andrew Whitaker, Charles Calloway, and Cecil Hendricks. These boys were members of the football team who did not receive sweaters along with the rest of the team last year. Since they were Seniors, the team voted that they be awarded sweaters this year. Charles Calloway received his sweater as manager of the team. Football letters were awarded to W. A. Woodall, Nick Varazo, Siver Verazo, Volner Wilson, E. R. Smith, Edgar Turnipseed, Dale Harper, Charles Kenwright, Edgar Brunson, Bedford Thompson, E. B. Collins, Max Juchheim, Jack Ward, Billy Betz, Thomas Bell, and the team sponsor, Elizabeth Dogan.

A spectacular part of the program was the awarding of Good Citizenship medals to William Winter and Hilda Taylor. These outstanding students were selected by the careful vote of the students and the faculty. The medals were presented by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

At the close of the chapel period, the devotional was conducted by the Rev. G. E. Wiley. Mr. Wiley is a favorite with all the students and they always enjoy having him speak in chapel.

INTERVIEWS WITH SENIORS

A lover of the great out-of-doors is Baker. Despite his great lack of capactity he still maintains, by dress and gait, a look of hardened ruggedness. He is famous for an amiable attitude and a very keen sense of humor. His favorite pastimes are hunting and fishing. Very often he leaves his home at the top of the hill on Cherry St. and saunters down to t certain little yellow house in the valley. We infer that "Egg's" personal interests are concerned. This youn gentleman is far from being classed as unintelligent. In fact, he has always stood high in his class. He is a favorite with all of his class-mates; and in spite of his childish size, commands much respect and high regard of all of them.

Entirely too diminutive to be among the exalted group, the Seniors, Spider Calloway is, in reality, one of the most eminent members of that body. Noted for his wit, Calloway is always ready and willing to share it with less fortunate associates, as is evidenced by the large circles of admirers that gather around at each noon hour to hear his numerous tall tales. His favorite pastimes include shooting birds, pool and other objects. He has been a prominent member of the Grenada Band for many years. On his recent trip to the State Band Clinic he fell in love with a little girl by the name of K. R. He made an excellent manager of the powerful Bulldog football team—the team will suffer because of his graduation. Calloway is a great man—we Seniors will always remember him as "Calloway the Great."

GIRL RESERVES

Thursday the Girl Reserves had one of the best meetings of the year. As there was no business, the program was opened with the singing of several Girl Reserve songs. The subject for study was the code, Comlelou Hallam having charge. The program was as follows:

Gracious in Manner, Elizabeth Dogan
Impartial in Judgement, Miss Haynes
Ready for Service, Betty Rule.
Loyal to Friends, Elizabeth Horton.
Reaching Toward the Best, Lillian York.
Earnest in Purpose, Beulah Abel.

Miss Haynes asked the members to try to practice one of these better, and live up to the code. The meeting was closed with the "Girl Reserve Loyalty Song".

'Tis Leap Year, girls, and you've let eighteen good days go by without any appreciable progress! Remember, if you fail, you may have to wait another four years. Now is the time for us Amazons to ally ourselves against these stags who have overlooked us at dances; now is the time to have revenge on boys who have been snooty! And wont our revenge be sweet? Those boys who have had an eye to the future will be rewarded for this foresight; they will be wined and dined and dated and chased. Now is the time for the girls to pursue without any pretense of subtlity or being looked at askance; this year all subtlity in our pursuit will be abandoned. So, hurry up, girls, time's a'wasting.

ODE TO DEAR OLD EXAMS

Dear exams, why hast thou so hastily fled?
Here yesterday, gone today, leaving us in mid-air.
Into our minds, thou hast a great cramming led.
Now with a shudder of relief,
We've speedily swept them bare!

Dear exams, we did so hate to see thee go!
But we know that all good things
must come to an end—
In the first place, it's second semester we've been led into.
We're looking forward. What's that I see? Exams again!

The intrepid Calloway, while passing a desk in physics class, unwittingly brushed an ink bottle off a desk. When the bottle hit the floor with a bang and splash, he turned around with alarm and addressed a well-known chalk-thrower thus: "Oh, so you're throwing ink bottles now!"

MRS. SANDERSON HOSTESS

Mrs. Jack Sanderson was hostess on Friday of last week to bridge club members at her charming home on Line Street.

Two tables were arranged for the games in the cozy living room. Bright window plants were used as decorations on this occasion.

Two non-member guests were present, Mesdames R. E. Hall and John Watson.

At the conclusion of the games, Mrs. Fred Clemens received embroidered pillow cases as high score prize.

Delicious cranberry salad, wafers, date fudge and Coca Colas were served in the late afternoon.

Wm. Winter, son of Senator and Mrs. W. A. Winter, attended the inauguration of Governor Paul Johnson at Jackson on Tuesday of this week.

Miss Marybel Brown, member of the faculty at New Albany, came home Thursday for a brief visit with her mother. The school at New Albany closed because of an epidemic of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mims of Oxford were guests of their parents, Attorney and Mrs. Sam Mims, the past week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Green, Mesdames G. F. Deaton and George Criss visited in Memphis on Wednesday last.

Mr. James Cuff and Misses Margaret and Mamie Cuff spent Wednesday and Thursday in Memphis.

On Friday last, Mrs. Georgia Staten entertained delightfully at her country home north of Grenada with a noonday dinner. The group of congenial friends enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Staten throughout the day.

Seated at the table were members of the family and Mesdames Love, Lamar, Boteler, and Ernest Staten.

Mrs. C. S. Burt and Roger Pleasants motored to Greenwood on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl White visited their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Anderson, in Oxford Sunday.

Mrs. Troy Brown of Jackson, who is Mrs. Sam Irby's sister, and who has many friends in Grenada, is the mother of a fine baby girl born January 12th and weighing 7 lbs., 12oz.

Mr. Richard Boteler of Laurel was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Boteler last week.

Those from Grenada attending the funeral of Mr. A. D. Caulfield held in Water Valley included Mrs. H. L. Honeycutt, and Messrs. W. B. Hoffa, J. T. Thomas, E. M. Sherwood, W. J. Sherwood, C. E. Coleman, Leon Hirsch and George Grant.

Mrs. Gertrude Marders spent Monday and Tuesday in Jackson with her daughter, Jean, student at Belhaven. She attended a recital at Belhaven in which Jean appeared, also attended the inaugural ceremonies.

Mrs. John Keeton and son, Benton, attended the Inauguration in the city of Jackson Tuesday.

Mesdames H. B. Spain, as the guest of Mrs. Pope, and Mrs. E. R. Proudfit, as guest of her son, attended the inauguration Tuesday.

Misses Juliette and Robbie Doak, accompanied by their sister, Mrs. J. S. King and her son Whitfield of Memphis, arrived in Grenada Tuesday and were guests of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Doak and Mrs. John Nason for the day. Mrs. King and Whitfield and Miss Robbie returned to Memphis.

HOME and Tax Exemption

★ At tax-paying time, thousands of Mississippi home owners are grateful for Homestead Tax Exemption. ★ Few realize, however, that beer taxes contribute nearly $1,000,000 each year to the State's General Tax Fund, and therefore are an important factor in making Homestead Tax Exemption possible. That's one of the many important contributions of the beer industry to Mississippi! ★ It is a good reason why home owners should be solidly behind the program of law-abiding, legitimate beer wholesalers and retailers, who are cooperating with the authorities to eliminate jook-joints offensive to the public and this industry. Such places jeopardize the $5,500,000 Mississippi beer business which helps to make your Homestead Tax Exemption a practical reality. ★ Do your part by patronizing only those retail beer outlets which are conducted strictly in accordance with the law and with public sentiment in your community.

BOUNDARIES
But No
BARRIERS

It will probably surprise you to learn that there are 855 telephone companies serving the nine southeastern states. The Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company is the largest, it is true. But the other 854 have the important job of serving about 1,400 southern communities which have a total of some 314,300 telephones.

Southern Bell is pleased that its lines connect with the lines of these other southern companies, blanketing the South with a vast network of wires—so that boundaries between companies are not barriers to quick, South-wide telephone service.

Through teamwork and friendly cooperation, these 855 southern telephone companies work together to furnish the South with service that is fast, efficient and dependable.

Why YOU Should Use SARAH GLEN EGGS

FIRST—There are none better.

SECOND—Because Purina Feed purchased from your good dealer Quinn's Milk Products Co. in 1939 cost $497.68. Eleven thousand pounds of which was shipped in cotton bags weighing 47.5 pounds.

THIRD—This feed was shipped here by Purina Mills of St. Louis, Missouri, via the Illinois Central Railroad Co., who are the largest tax payers in Grenada County.

FOURTH—I carry on my work with the aid of others whom I pay well.

FIFTH—Because this is all being done on waste land that was turned out until 1928.

ANNUAL MARCH OF DIMES
(Mrs. Ruby Hudson)

All America is awaiting the one great event of Jan. 30, 1940, The President's Birthday Celebration, and the coming campaign of the March of the Dimes to secure monies to combat infantile paralysis.

Grenada County is organized this year to double our efforts in this drive. An Infantile Paralysis Chapter had to be organized before we could spend the money secured in this drive. This was done September 25, 1939. Now every dime or dollar you give will be augmented by the federal government working through the Crippled Childrens Service of Mississippi. Mrs. McDougal, head of this, reports there are $40,00 in banks over the state tha cannot to be spent because no chapter has been organized, but not so with Grenada. We have only worked with 17 crippled children in our county. There is a good many more who need help. This rehabilitation program for these children will go on through college if they can go and will be assured of a vocation whereby they may have security in our social and economic life. It is the birthright of every child to have a sound body. The National quota is 30 million dimes. Last year we reached the sum of 13,291,000 dimes. We hope Grenada county can reach 2 000 dimes. There will be no celebration except the march of dimes and we urge every person to pitch in a dime.

There will be a can placed at every public place for your convenience.

From time to time speeches will be made and news of Grenada County's progress.

MARY ALLICE BREWER HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Sam Brewer entertained a group of little friends of her dainty little daughter, Mary Alice, who celebrated her birthday with a lovely party on that day.

Tht party was indoors and the guests were amused by playing with Mary Alice's Christmas toys and other arranged forms of amusement. Three diminutive pink candles adorned the white and pink birthday cake. This was served with delicious ice cream.

Favors given the delighted guests were cellopane bags filled with candy and colorful balloons.

Mary Alice received numerous birthday rememberances and was a charming hostess to her little friends. Attending this party which was given in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kettle, were many children.

Speaking of Governor Johnson, he is 100 percent correct in disapproving the law designed to curtail oil production in Mississippi, when we have as yet only four or five streams of oil flowing. That's like putting a curb bit on a colt yet in its dam's womb, or setting up a fire tower in the middle of the ocean. Let's get some production before we go to curbing production. Paul is entirely right in his stand.
